

TWENTIETH ANNIVERSARY SALE

Closing time yesterday saw our stocks decidedly "up set." We tried hard to keep them straight and wait on trade, but to try was the best we could do. This is a natural result of the remarkable offerings of good goods at such reduced prices.

Wherever we have found small lots of goods we have ruthlessly clipped the prices and we are again ready for as busy days as the last three days have been.

Abram Mann, who is tearing down the old French house at the corner of Elm and Washington streets, is on the lookout for old things. This morning he found some buttonholes between the partitions, and the nuts were certainly old, how old, it is impossible to state. The meats were found to be in fairly good condition. The other day Mr. Mann found a razor in a case. The ends of the case had been eaten off by mice and the animals had started on the handle of the razor. The upper story and the second floor of the house are now down.

The fire department was called out at 7:10 this morning to put out a chimney blaze at the house of Mrs. Eugene Brunelle at the corner of Maple and Harrington avenues. The blaze did not amount to much for the dry chimney was used, quickly extinguishing the flame. The fire horses made the quickest time in reaching a fire so far from the station that they ever did. They were just four minutes from the time they left the station until they stopped at the scene of the fire, and it was a long run.
